OTIS' CAMPAIGN TO ACTIVELY CONTINUE

Decision Reached at the White House Conference.

Aggressive War to Be Maintained Against the Filipinos.

Instructions Asked for by the Gen eral Commanding Sent in Accordance With His Request.

Active operations in the Philippines will be continued by the American troops, notwithstanding the rainy season. Plans for continuing an aggressive campaign were discussed at the White House at a midnight conference by President McKinley, Secretary Hay, Assistant Secretary of War Meiklejohn, and Adjutant General Corbin.

What these plans are the War Department officials refuse absolutely to make public. "They relate to future operations, and will, of course, not be divulged," said Assistant Secretary Meiklejohn to a Times reporter. He was asked if the conference ast night related to the proposed operations, and he replied affirmatively.

It is learned, however, that General Otis several days ago agreed upon a plan of campaign. This he cabled the War Depart and Secretary Alger submitted Gen-eral Otis' despatch to the President. In eral Otis' despatch to the President. In his cablegram General Otis outlined the movement made against the rebels on the peninsula of Morong. His plan was to surround the forces of General Pio del Pilar and drive them into the Morong Pen-insula, where they could not escape. This was a part of a general plan for the con-tinuation of active operations and when tinuation of active operations and when reports were received from Manila about the result of the movements of Generals Hale and Lawton a conference was held to discuss the situation with reference to future operations, plans for which have been submitted by General Otis.

Secretary Hay's presence was due to the eccipt of a cablegram from President schurman of the Philippine Commission. which concerned the matters reported on by General Otis. In both despatches ques-tions were asked and instructions request-ed, and the President deemed it wise to answer them without delay. There was nothing in either despatch to make it ap-parent that the insurrection was nearing an end. It is believed that the rainy sca-son will be severe enough to interfere with son will be severe enough to interfere with these plans for several weeks, and in the meantime it is General Otis purpose to pursue the Filipinos so relentlessly that this may be convinced of the advisability

At last Friday's Cabinet meeting the impression prevailed generally that the rainy season would put an end to military operations, and the decision of the President to defer action on the question of calling for volunteers was partly based on that pre-sumption. Since then the military authori-ties have been gathering information on the subject of the rainy season, and learned to their surprise that last year there was very little rain during the so-called un-healthy period. This new knowledge prob-ably has some bearing on the decision of asking the court to decree the sale of the INSURGENTS ANNOY TROOPS. fuch Difficulty Encountered by the Signal Corps.

Manila, June 5.-Ever since the begin ing of the rainy season the insurgents have pursued annoying tactics and have kept the American troops constantly on the outlook. They grow bolder as the days go by. Five days' rations are being distributed among the troops who are advancing and maintaining a nearly continous line across the peninsula

The hospital tugs returned last night with 500 men suffering from the effects of the heat. The gunboat Cavadonga wa struck by a shot from an insurgent can-non at a range of 3,500 feet. She signaled non at a range of 3,500 feet. She signaled to the Napidan, which came up, and both boats shelled the enemy for fifteen minutes, silencing their guns. Several escapes of insurgents through the lines are reported to have been made in the night. The unevenness of the country preveats the maintenance of a complete cordon of American troops.

The Mateo Valley wire has been cut continuously by the enemy, and has finally been abandoned by the Americans, communication being kept by Pasa. The roughest country traveled by the American troops is in the vicinity of Antipolo. Transportation over it is impossible, and even the Signal Service wagons had to be abandoned. Five Chinamen in the Signal Service employ deserted and the remaining ones were unable to carry the wires. Sergeant Wadek with a wire repairing party was cut off behind the lines by the enemy. Lieutenant Gibbs, with a handful of signal men, rushed to Wadek's rescue, and succeeded in repulsing the enemy who opposceeded in repulsing the enemy who opposed his return. Lieutenant Hawthorn was unable to proceed owing to the impassable condition of the country, and was compelled to burn his wagon, artillery, and ammunition to prevent their falling loto the hands of the enemy.

HOMECOMING OF VOLUNTEERS. Second Oregon Regiment Leave Manila This Week.

The homeward movement of volunteer troops from the Philippines will begin this week when the Second Oregon Regiment will sail from Manila. General Otis cabled this information to the War Department today. The regiment will be landed at Portland, Oregon, and will go thence to Vancouver Barracks for muster out. The other volunteer regiments will follow in the order of their arrival in the Philippines, unless there should be a chance of delay through the failure of organizations in other islands than Luzon to reach Manila by the time the transports are ready to depart. In that event other regiments will be sent without reference to the date of their arrival in the archipelago.

Precautions in Paris to Prevent Disturbances.

tinled-Comments of Papers.

Paris, June 5.-The government is takng the most extreme precautions to prevent a renewal of the disorders which occurred at the Anteuil races yesterday. Lieutenants Cionnine and Kergarion are to be court-martialed for the part they took in the riotous proceedings.

The charge which will be formally made against Baron Christiani, President Loubet's assailant, will be that of attempting to strike the chief of state. It is now known beyond question that the President had a narrow escape from an attack far more serious than the calmness of M. Loubet led the spectators to believe.

The "Libre Parole" declares that there is nothing left for President Loubet to do, but clear out. The scenes of yesterday, the paper says were the protest of all those who still have French souls and bodies against the contemptible and sickening Engine 17, cut about hands, face, and head; victory the Dreyfusites have won.

The 'Intransigeant' says that the Court of Cassation and the President should know what sort of popularity they acquired in the Dreyfus campaign. It is easy to imagine, the paper adds, what sort of welcome Dreyfus may expect. The "Figaro" says that yesterday's demonstration redounds to the credit of the President.

The "Matin" says the day has not arrived when the racecourse crowd can overthrow the republic.

M. De Cassagnac, in the "Autorite," says that neither Panama nor Dreyfus were really the cause of yesterday's outburst. The true cause was the digust which the existing regime inspires, even in true republicans. What France wants is a man of the race of Capet, like Napoleon. She is hoping for one and waiting for him.

SEVERAL FIREMEN INJURED. Fall in Fighting Flames in Phila-

Philadelphia, June 5,-Six firemen and a stableman were injured while fighting a fire which consumed the flour and feed store of Frank P. Mellon, at 34 and 36 South Seventeenth street, at an early hour this morning.

The injured are Patton Mohn, Engine Company 20, serious; James Dolan, En-gine 20, leg broken and badly bruised; Chris Bailey, Engine 26, badly bruised and burned about head and body; Richard Baery, acting foreman of Truck B, cut about the face and head; Edward Raiston, Henry Parker, Engine 1, cut about face and head; Charles Tilley, a stableman, was asleep in the building when the fire started. He was bitten and kicked while res-

Mohn, Iolan, and Balley forced a way against the blinding smoke and showers of flying sparks, and were holding the bead of their hose fifteen feet inside the building, when the roof above them gave way, and the hay piled in baies on every side rolled down upon them. The other mem-bers of Company No. 29 were just behind them, and though it seemed as if the rafters still clinging by edge to the walls would give way and fall upon them, they crept through the debris, and with ax and hook and vigorous pulling freed their comrades from the mass of debris which had them down. The hose had fallen from the hands of the first three men and lay writhing on the ficor. The fire which had almost been under control in that part of the building, leaped up again, and before Dolan was taken out of the place was a seething furnace. Dolan had inhaled so much smoke and cinders and he cried so pitifully for water that the men who carried him stopped with him at the top of the twenty-foot ladder while one went down to get a

He, however, states that when he filed in the Police Court the paper to which exception was taken by Mr paper to which exception was taken by Mr. Davis he believed that the language contained therein was true; that the complaint was filed in good faith in his own defence and not for the purpose or with the intent to impose or reflect upon Mr. Davis. Since the papers filed in the Police Court has been stricked from the records, Adriaans says that, upon reading the affidavit of Mr. Davis which accompanies his meiting for the debarment of the reaffidivit of Mr. Davis which accompanies his motion for the deharment of the respondent from practice before the Court of Appeals for the District, he is satisfied that there was no foundation for his charges against Mr. Davis in the conduct of his office as district attorney. Therefore, Adriaans withdraws the language complained of and disayows the same."

In conclusion Mr. Adriaans states that his withdrawal of the language is not done as a means of defence, but in a desire to do justice to Mr. Davis as a member of Alleged Reasons for The Hagne Convention.

Assertions of a Diplomat Returned From the Orient.

Why Russia Is Anxious to Distrac Attention From Her Posttion in China.

"The calling of the peace conference now holding forth at The Hague by the Czar of Russia is one of the shrewdest diplomatic coups of the century. It proves that Russian diplomats can cope with any country under any and all circumstances." This was remarked by a diplomat whose knowledge of inside diplomacy is not surpassed by any diplomat stationed in Washington. This gentieman, whose name cannot be used for reasons that will make themselves manifest, has but recently rewhere he stands in high favor at the foreign offices of those countries.

Studying a Form of Government for Porto Rico.

Depositories Designated for the War Department-Orders That Will Interest the Mcrchant Marine.

Work of Americanizing Cuba and Porto Rico is now beginning in earnest. The Intry will cease to be a factor in Korean affairs. One of the first steps in the effort to reclaim the kingdom is outlined by the "Nippin." Japan will demand that the local government for Porto Rico and a new local government for Porto Rico and a new system of taxation for the island. Menibers of the Commission do not besitate to say that it will be a few years before the

> to begin the reform would be to commence with the extension of self-government by granting suffrage to two or more of the sixty-eight municipalities, suffrage to be gained by an educational test. If the pian worked satisfactorily the system could gradually be extended until the people of the island would be in condition to govern it. While there is no danger that the Forto Ricans will ever revolt against American authority, yet, the Commission
